

Wildflower Bunch Garden Club

Operating Protocol 2023

- I. Executive Board members are eligible for door prizes. As paying club members, they can fully participate in all activities.
- II. Speakers staying for lunch will have their lunch covered by the WFB; Board members and other guests will be responsible for their own charges.
- III. Speakers will be offered housing and meals for an evening in conjunction with their presentation date.
- IV. In addition to President and Treasurer, who are empowered by WFB By-Laws, the Rising President is also empowered as a signatory.
- V. Money received from memberships will be used for education, speakers and general expenses of the organization. Money raised through the Plant Sale and Garden Tour and/or other events will be used for special club events or club improvement projects and may also be used for our philanthropic endeavors.
- VI. Guests of Wildflower Bunch members and other non-members will be allowed to attend 2 meetings without paying the $10 fee before determining whether or not they want to join.
